

THE COMMUNITY INTERPRETER®

40-HOUR INTERPRETER TRAINING CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The only national program for community interpreting presented by licensed trainers across the U.S.

If you want to become a community interpreter, come and attend the most respected program for community interpreting in the U.S. Whether you are a bilingual employee, a contract interpreter or someone starting out, you need a training certificate to interpret. This 40-hour training covers ethics and conduct, basic skills (from pre-session to post-session), positioning, terminology, modes of interpreting, steps for sight translation, intervention strategies, cultural mediation, and other vital skills and protocols.

The 40-hour community interpreter training includes an 8-hour Medical Terminology for Interpreters Workshop. This workshop will help interpreters understand medical terminology and develop strategies to interpret it correctly.
